Appendix A: Examination contingency plan -For the academic year 2017/18

The examination contingency plan aims to cover all aspects of examination administration, and should be read alongside the Eastbrook examination policy. It is a robust contingency plan - put in place by senior leaders, to minimise risk to examination administration and any adverse impact on students, for example - should the examinations officer be absent at a critical stage of the examination cycle etc.

The examination contingency plan has been developed in conjunction with the Joint contingency plan for the examinations system in England, Wales and Northern Ireland, which can be downloaded from Ofqual's website (<http://ofqual.gov.uk/documents/joint-contingency-plan-for-the-examination-system-in-england-wales-and-northern-ireland/all-versions/>). The Eastbrook School examinations contingency plan has been developed to reflect specific circumstances at Eastbrook School.

This contingency plan will be implemented only in the event of major disruption to the school and any actions taken will be subject to the agreement of senior leaders dealing with the specific circumstances being faced. Implementing the plan will safeguard the interests of candidates while maintaining the integrity of examinations and safeguarding qualification standards.

From the below table, the contingencies applied will be selected based on the context of the disruption. If it is identified that current contingencies will not be sufficient to manage a unique unforeseen situation causing disruption to examinations, SLT will convene to agree the additional actions required.
