Newsletter Friday 16th November 2018

Hello everyone,

I hope you have had a good week.

Our week started with a visit from our school improvement partners who monitor the school's progress. Staff have worked extremely hard to achieve our targets and I thank them all for that. We will not cease in continuing to rapidly improve Eastbrook.

I have spent the last three lunch times in the playground looking at how children behave with each other and what they like to play. I have also spent time talking with the pupils asking them their opinions on how we can improve lunch time provision. As a result of this, we have ordered a huge variety of lunch time play equipment ranging from giant Connect 4 to pom-poms to new football goals and lots more! I am very pleased that children think our investment in lunchtime coaching is a very positive thing that they are enjoying.

Our teachers record how many times entries have been made in pupils' reading record books. We aim for at least five each week. Please encourage your child to read every night and make a note in the book. It is crucial our pupils are developing a love for reading and practicing skills at home as well as at school.

On Thursday Mr Jackson, Mr Gillard and I launched our "Christmas Cups". These are three trophies that will be presented to three children before the end of term. We are focusing on attitude and behaviour. We will also be celebrating children who move to Bronze, Silver and Gold on their behaviour charts in class with exciting stickers and badges. The vast majority of our children do the right thing, make good choices; are caring, respectful and hardworking and we will be recognising and celebrating this more than we already do. We are also going to start giving stickers to those children with 100% attendance each week.

Have a lovely weekend.
